Dear Sirs

Colby and Banningham Parish Council
Internal Audit
Year Ended 31 March 2024

I have completed my internal audit of the council's financial records and my report in the annual governance and accountability return has been prepared. I have followed the suggested internal audit approach as directed by the guidance notes and I am satisfied that the internal control in respect of the following key control areas:

- Proper book-keeping
- Payment controls
- Risk management arrangements
- Budgetary controls
- Income controls
- Payroll controls
- Asset and investment register
- Bank reconciliations
- Year end procedures
- Public rights

have been correctly carried out.

As a result of my successful tests and in view of the size of the council's financial activities, I do not consider that any new recommendations are required to be implemented by the council in relation to its internal control systems.

Yours faithfully

Kevin Eke FCCA
